  2. Embedding the Web Font Files using CSS @font-files;

6.2. Custom License

Upon the request, the Foundry can provide a non-basic License solution to the User or Buyer regarding any of the mentioned or unmentioned Terms and Conditions available in the previous sections.

§ 7. Complaints regarding the Subject of the Digital Service

1. The provisions of this § 8 shall apply only:
  1. Customers who are:
    1. Users or Buyers, unless a specific provision of the Regulations applies only to one of these persons, and
    2. Consumers or Entrepreneurs with Consumer rights;
  2. Agreements for the provision of the Account Service and Digital Goods Delivery Agreements, unless a specific provision of the Regulations applies only to one of these Agreements;
  3. Non-Compliance of the Account Service with the Account Service Agreement and Non-Compliance of Digital Goods with the Agreement for the delivery of Digital Goods.
2. The Subject of the Digital Service delivered to the Customer by the Foundry must comply with the Agreement for its delivery:
  1. at the time of its delivery – if the Subject of the Digital Goods Service is delivered once or in parts;
  2. throughout the entire period of delivery of a given Subject of the Digital Service – if it is delivered continuously.
3. The Foundry is responsible for Non-Compliance:
  1. existing at the time of delivery of the Subject of the Digital Service and disclosed within 2 (two) years from that moment - if it is delivered once or in parts;
  2. disclosed during the period of delivery of the Subject of the Digital Service - if it is delivered continuously.

4. In the event of disclosure of Non-Compliance, the Customer may file a complaint containing a request to bring the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery.
5. The complaint is submitted by e-mail to the address indicated in § 1 section 4 point 1 of the Regulations.
6. The complaint should include:
  1. name and surname of the Customer;
  2. e-mail address;
  3. a description of the Incompatibility revealed;
  4. a request to bring the Digital Benefit Item into compliance with the Agreement for its delivery.
7. The Foundry may refuse to bring the Subject of the Digital Service into conformity with the Agreement regarding its delivery if this is impossible or would require the Foundry to incur excessive costs.
8. After considering the complaint, the Foundry provides the Customer with a response to the complaint, in which:
  1. acknowledges the complaint and indicates the planned date of bringing the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery;
  2. refuses to bring the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Subject of the Digital Service for the reasons indicated in paragraph 7 above;
  3. rejects the complaint because it is unfounded.
9. The Foundry shall respond to the complaint by e-mail within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of its receipt.
10. If the complaint is accepted, the Foundry at its own expense brings the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery within a reasonable time from the receipt of the complaint and without undue inconvenience to the Customer, considering the nature of the Subject of the Digital Service and the purpose for which it is used. The planned date of bringing the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery is indicated by the Seller in response to the complaint.
11. In the event of disclosure of Non-Compliance, subject to section 14 below, the Customer may submit to the Foundry a statement on price reduction or withdrawal from the Agreement when:
  1. bringing the Subject of the Digital Service into conformity with the Agreement for its delivery is impossible or requires excessive costs;

2. The Foundry has not brought the Subject of the digital service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery in accordance with paragraph 10 above;
  3. The Non-Compliance persists even though the Foundry has attempted to bring the Subject of the Digital Service into conformity with the Agreement;
  4. The Non-Compliance is so significant that it justifies withdrawal from the Agreement for the delivery of the Subject of the Digital Service without first requesting the Foundry to bring the Subject of the Digital Service into compliance with the Agreement regarding its delivery;
  5. it is clear from the Foundry statement or circumstances that the Foundry will not bring the Subject of the Digital Service into conformity with the Agreement for its delivery within a reasonable time or without undue inconvenience to the Customer.
12. A statement on price reduction or withdrawal from the Agreement may be submitted by e-mail to the address indicated in § 1 section 4 point 1 of the Regulations.
  13. The statement on price reduction or withdrawal from the Agreement should contain:
    1. name and surname of the Customer;
    2. e-mail address;
    3. the date of delivery of the Subject of the Digital Service;
    4. a description of the Incompatibility revealed;
    5. indication of the reason for making the declaration, chosen from among the reasons indicated in paragraph 11 above;
    6. a statement on price reduction, together with an indication of the reduced price, or a statement of withdrawal from the Agreement.
  14. The Customer may not submit a statement on price reduction to the Foundry if the Non-Compliance relates to the Account Service.
  15. The Foundry is not entitled to demand payment for the time during which the Digital Goods were not in conformity with the Digital Goods Delivery Agreement, even if the Buyer used these Digital Goods before withdrawing from the Digital Goods Delivery Agreement.
  16. The reduced price must be in such proportion to the price resulting from the Digital Goods Delivery Agreement in which the value of the Digital Goods not in conformity with the Digital Goods Delivery Agreement remains to the value of the Digital Goods in accordance with the Digital Goods Delivery Agreement. The Foundry shall return to the Buyer the amounts due because of exercising the right to a price reduction immediately, no later than within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of receipt of the statement on price reduction.
  17. The Buyer may not withdraw from the Agreement for the delivery of Digital Goods if the Non-Conformity is irrelevant.

18. In the event of withdrawal by the User from the Agreement for the provision of the Account Service, the Foundry deletes the Account immediately after receiving a statement of withdrawal from the Agreement for the provision of the Account Service.
19. Pursuant to Article 34(1a) of the Act on consumer rights, if the Customer withdraws from the Agreement regarding the delivery of the Digital Service Item, the Buyer is obliged to cease using Subject of the Digital Service and make it available to third parties.

§ 8. Intellectual Property Notice

All components of the Store and the Digital Goods are subject to legal protection under the provisions of the Act of 4 February 1994 on Copyright and Related Rights, the Act of 30 June 2000 - Industrial Property Law, the Act of 16 April 1993 on Combating Unfair Competition, and other generally applicable laws, including European Union laws.

  2. The Foundry informs that, insofar as such an obligation does not arise from mandatory legal provisions, it does not make use of out-of-court complaint and redress procedures. Moreover, the Foundry does not undertake to use the ODR platform referred to in paragraph 4 above.

§ 11. Amendments to the Terms and Conditions

1. The Foundry may change the Regulations in the case of:
  1. changes in the Foundry data;
  2. changes in the subject of the Foundry's activity;
  3. commencement of the provision of new services by the Foundry, modification of services previously provided or discontinuation of their provision;
  4. make a technical modification of the Store requiring adaptation of the provisions of the Regulations to them;
  5. the legal obligation to make changes, including the obligation to adapt the Regulations to the current legal status.
2. Customers will be informed about the amendment of the Regulations by publishing its amended version on the Store's website. At the same time, the amended version of the Regulations will be sent to Users by e-mail.
3. Sales Agreements concluded before the date of publication of the new Regulations on the Store's website shall be governed by the provisions of the Regulations then in force.
4. The User who does not agree to the amendment of the Regulations may terminate the Agreement for the provision of the Account Service with immediate effect within 7 (seven) days from the date of receipt of the amended version of the Regulations by e-mail. Lack of termination shall be deemed consent to change the Regulations.
5. Termination of the Agreement for the provision of the Account Service takes place by submitting to the Foundry by the User a statement of termination of this Agreement. The statement referred to in the preceding sentence may be sent by e-mail to the address indicated in § 1 section 4 point 1 of the Regulations.
6. Immediately after receiving the statement referred to in paragraph 5 above, the Foundry deletes the Account.

§ 12. Final provisions

1. The law applicable to the Regulations and the Agreements indicated therein is Polish law. However, the choice of Polish law made in the preceding sentence does not deprive the Consumer of protection resulting from the provisions of foreign law, which cannot be excluded by contract, and which would apply in the absence of the choice of Polish law made in the preceding sentence.
2. For clarity, the Foundry obliges itself to provide the User with access to the current and the archival versions of the Terms and Conditions.
3. The current version of the Regulations is effective from 29.01.2026
